Dear Kwame:

Thank you for participating in our 9th Annual Wall Street Project Conference. Our 2006 effort was one of our most successful events yet. As moderator of the session entitled "Real Estate Development in the 21st Century," you contributed to that success. Your session provided key information and guidance in the area of real estate development and challenged our attendees to "get informed, get inspired and get involved."

Our conference theme, "A More Perfect Union: The Quest for Equity and Parity," will be the prevalent theme for our other upcoming 2006 Rainbow PUSH Coalition conferences in Chicago (June 10-15), Atlanta, Detroit, Los Angeles, and Washington D.C. As you know, the Wall Street Project was established to assure equal opportunity for minority consumers, employers and entrepreneurs. We cannot do this important work alone. By building relationships with diverse individuals and corporations, our efforts at the Rainbow PUSH Wall Street Project are fortified. In our work to ensure access to capital and opportunity for all, we look forward to your continued support and the opportunity to work together throughout the year.

Thank you again for your time, and participation.

Sincerely,
